NASA Glenn Security Day

August 2, 2016

Session for Glenn Employees, First Responders, and Children of Employees*

Introduction and Welcome

8:30 to 9:30 a.m. • MIC Building Auditorium

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Denis Onieal, Deputy U.S. Fire Administrator, "Civil Unrest and the Future of Emergency Services"

Session for Glenn Employees

Hidden in Plain Sight

10:00 a.m. to 3:15 p.m. (Lunch break from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.) • Building 3 Auditorium

Explore an interactive exhibit designed to resemble a teenager's bedroom, containing over 150 items indicative of dangerous risk behaviors that are hidden in plain sight. Join in the discussion regarding red flags that may be lurking in your child's bedroom. Topics include substance abuse, violence, eating disorders, juvenile crime, technology, risky games/challenges, and more!

Session for NASA Interns and Children of Employees*

Game of Pawns: Do Spies Really Exist?

10:00 to 11:30 a.m. • MIC Room 130

Do spies really exist? Absolutely, and you could unknowingly be the next recruit! Find out how the dangers of espionage activities can knowingly or unknowingly impact you and your future! This session will raise the awareness of the foreign intelligence recruitment threat to U.S. college students and public servants.

Session for First Responders

The Path to Success in Fire and Emergency Services

10:00 to 11:30 a.m. • MIC Building Auditorium

Learn the best path for professional development in fire and emergency services from the former National Fire Academy Superintendent and current Deputy U.S. Fire Administrator.

Interactive Activity for Glenn Interns and Employees and Their Children*

That Must Be Accompanied to the Activity by a Glenn Employee

Escape Room—The Case of the Missing Special Agent

SAME-DAY REGISTRATION ONLY • Sign up in the MIC Lobby to reserve a time slot

You're invited to solve the mystery of missing Special Agent Del Simonovich. There's just one catch. You have just 25 minutes to test your NASA security knowledge and escape the room! Limited space is available, and registration will be on a first-come-first-served basis the day of the event.
