Basex Report - The new workplace
a note created by Bryan House on 20 Oct 03

eRoom offers one of the most user-friendly and extensible collaboration products on the market. Its excellent user interface and extensive integration capabilities present an attractive package for enterprises looking for simple, hassle-free team collaboration.

All in all, eRoom strikes an attractive balance between ease of use and versatility. This combination of power and simplicity merits a serious look from all enterprises looking for a capable enterprise collaboration package.
